Spiritualist

You see the universe through your third eye.

Sunrise Yoga Move to your breath, stretch mindfully, and relax deeply. Join us at Casa Marina East Beach. Experienced instructors from Spa al Maré. Private and group sessions available.

Spa al Maré Services Spa al Maré offers indoor and outdoor treatments that will leave you feeling rejuvenated and refreshed. Relax and unwind with a therapeutic massage by experienced therapists, and recharge and balance with an extensive collection of Young Living aromatherapy treatments.

Key West Ghost and Gravestone Tour Discover the haunted side of Key West with a 90-minute ghost-themed trolley tour. Learn about the island's frightening past and see why the city is considered one of the most haunted in America.

Sunset Sails & Charters A two-hour sail provides a front-row seat to some spectacular sunsets. Private charters can be arranged for groups of up to 275 aboard boats of various sizes. Small groups can reserve spots for daily sunset sails.

Dry Tortugas National Park Made up of seven small islands, this is one of the world's great eco-attractions. Its historic Fort Jefferson is a former Civil War prison. Nature tours and history lessons await your arrival by boat or plane.

Dolphin Research Center Meet the friendly bottlenose dolphins and California sea lions at this nonprofit organization.

Butterfly Conservatory Feel your stress flutter away with this magical collection of butterflies—over 60 species from around the world—along with more than 20 species of exotic birds, all in one habitat.

Sunset Celebration at Mallory Square Enjoy a stunning Key West sunset, local artists, palm readers, and performers.

EXPLORE KEY WEST

Pathfinder

You prefer wind-surfing to surfing the Internet.

Dolphin & Snorkel Tour Observe dolphins in their natural habitat and explore our coral reefs. Our 40-foot catamaran can accommodate groups of up to 35. Half-day and full-day tours are also available directly from our pier.

Conch Tour Train For over 60 years, the world-famous Conch Tour Train has introduced millions of guests to Key West. During this 90-minute, open-air tour, you'll learn the history of Key West as you visit all of the island's must-see landmarks, museums, and attractions.

Old Town Trolley Tours See the best of Key West with a fully narrated journey through the city's best sites. A day pass allows you to hop on and off any trolley to explore any points of interest on your own.

Bahama Village Just south of Old Town, you'll find Bahama Village. This neighborhood boasts beautiful Florida Conch architecture, some of the best restaurants on the island, and a unique history worth exploring.

Fort Zachary Taylor State Park With beautiful beaches, watersport rentals, and harbor sunset views, Fort Zachary Taylor State Park makes for a historic and lush tropical outing.

Key Lime Bike Tours Take an exciting bike tour around the island and discover its treasures, with stops at top destinations and strolls through tree-lined backstreets. Afterwards, cool off with a slice of key lime pie.

Epicurean

You navigate the world via your taste buds.

Papa's Pilar Rum Distillery, Hemingway Rum Company This rum distillery salutes the adventurous spirit of Key West's most famous resident, Ernest Hemingway. Sample Papa's Pilar rum made right on the spot—named for Ernest and his beloved fishing boat.

The Waterfront Brewery Opened in 2015, this working brewery is also a restaurant and entertainment center. Here in the heart of Old Town, you'll find award-winning brews, handcrafted entrées, a rooftop deck, and state-of-the-art game room.

Sunset Sail and Dinner in Old Town Step onto a private charter boat and dine in Old Town at one of three notable restaurants: Conch Republic, Commodore, and A&B Lobster House.

Key West Food Tours Culinary walking tours designed to create food memories that last a lifetime. Engaging and knowledgeable local guides are eager to share an authentic and delicious experience of Key West.

Challenger

You truly believe you can achieve any goal.

Diving Excursion Tropical seas, colorful fishes, and the only living coral barrier reef in North America. A once-in-a-lifetime diving experience is only seven miles off the coast.

Jet Ski Tour Cruise over pristine waters and enjoy the tropical breeze aboard your own Waverunner. This two-hour, 28-mile guided tour passes the Southernmost Point, the Key West Bight, and Sunset Key.

Key West Golf Club This nearby club's 18-hole Rees Jones–designed course has over 200 acres of beautiful foliage and wildlife. Includes a full-service pro shop, restaurant, and bar; top-of-the-line rental equipment available.

Culturalist

You travel to see something you've never seen before.

Hemingway House This significant Key West landmark was the home of Ernest Hemingway, who won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1954.

Truman Little White House A public, living museum, rich in American history and politics.

Audubon House Audubon House & Tropical Gardens was once the home of harbor pilot Captain John Huling Geiger. Filled with antique furnishings, artwork, and a replica cook house.

Custom House Originally home to the island's customs office, postal service, and district courts, this four-story architectural marvel towers over Mallory's historic seaport.

East & West Martello Museum & Garden Club These forts were built to protect Key West during the Civil War. Visitors can now explore the preserved towers and learn about the history of the Florida Keys.

Key West Shipwreck Museum Learn how Key West's maritime heritage once made it the richest city in the United States. This experience combines reenactments, films, and even artifacts from the ship Isaac Allerton, which sank in 1856.

Mel Fisher Museum Discover Mel Fisher's treasures of gold and silver, and learn more about the wonders of underwater archaeology.

Alan S. Maltz Gallery See a different side of Duval Street. Take in the beautiful artwork of Alan S. Maltz, the Official Wildlife and Fine Art Photographer for the State of Florida.

Kino's Sandals Since 1966, Kino's custom handmade sandals have been cut, assembled, and glued right here in Key West. The traditional methods used to make these unique sandals are still on display today.

Rodriguez Cigar Factory Experience a true Cuban tradition—watch master artisans handcraft award-winning cigars at the Rodriguez Cigar Factory, the oldest cigar company in Key West.

Just Sand and Water This workshop will teach you the fundamentals of building sand sculptures, just like the professionals do. You'll find out what can really be accomplished with just sand and water.
